

Characteristics of a World-Class Core Curriculum

Revised Jan. 4, 2006

- Promotes working as a team
- Reflects the most recently developed knowledge and skills
- Is relevant and engaging to students
- Is problem based
- Is cross-curricular
- Promotes in-depth study of content
- Is rigorous
- Is accessible to all students
- Develops global perspectives
- Is articulated K-12
- Is application based
- Improve student achievement
- Is aligned with assessments that inform instruction and monitor student performance
- Offers authentic learning experiences to students
- Infuses core skills across the curriculum
- Incorporates current technology to enhance learning
- Changes to reflect the constantly changing world in which we live